

The Indiana no call list needs to be left as is and the Bankers association petition to have this removed should be denied.